Japanese Cross Soochow Creek: 50 Killed

SITUATION TENSE IN AMOY

Canton, Oct. 31.
 Lieut.-General Huang Tao, commanding the 157 Kwangtung Division in Amoy, is instructed by the military headquarters here to defend that port at all costs.

In an interview to-day, Mr. Andrew S. F. Lin, Secretary of the Commissioner of Foreign Affairs, admitted the tense situation in Amoy but said that the occupation of Quemoy has little effect on the defence of the mainland.

Several units from two divisions here have left for Shanghai for active service, but the remainder may go elsewhere in view of the change of the Shanghai war.

During the present emergency a joint committee has been formed to take charge of the political, military and Kuomintang affairs in Kwangtung. General Yu Han-mou will become the chairman of the committee with General Wu Te-chen as vice-chairman. The new committee will be the highest organ in this province.

RESERVE UNITS BECOME REGULARS

Canton, Oct. 31.
 With the departure of a detachment of provincial guards for national defence outside of the province, General Wu Teh-chen, Chairman of the Kwangtung Provincial Government, in his concurrent capacity as commandant of the Provincial Guards has ordered that the reserve units be turned into regulars.

The new units will be responsible for the maintenance of peace and order in this province, as they recently completed military training. At the same time, the well trained companies of the provincial militia will join in the peace preservation of Kwangtung.

The Provincial Government has ordered the establishment of committees in the counties for the relief of civilians affected by aerial bombardments. Each county will investigate the extent of the damages and casualties as a result of air raids.

GRATEFUL REFUGEES

The chairman of the Shanghai Refugees Committee acknowledges with thanks the receipt of the sum of $100 for the Shanghai Refugees Welfare Fund from Grateful refugees at No. 377 The Peak.

JAPANESE BOMBERS

Raid Kiangtung Bridge

Amoy, Oct. 31.
 Japanese bombers raided Kiangtung Bridge, west of here yesterday morning but failed to inflict any damages. They then made off for Tungmeishiang near Changchow.

One of the raiders was hit by a Chinese rifleman as it powered down too low.

About 1,000 Japanese blue-jackets are now on garrison duties in Quemoy Island, which is to be a temporary naval base. Wu Tien-shao is appointed by the Japanese as the commandant of the island garrison, and Hsu Ting-fang is appointed as the magistrate of Quemoy County.

Over ten thousand Chinese have left the island for the mainland.

TWO THOUSAND JAPANESE TROOPS ROUTED

BRITISH SOLDIERS INJURED

FINE HOMES IN HUNGJAO ROAD AREA DOOMED

Shanghai, October 31: The war was waged at Shanghai's western doorstep to-day in full sight of observers within the defence sector when Japanese planes and artillery tried to batter down the Chinese defence works on the south side of Soochow Creek. The Chinese replied spiritedly with machine-guns and trench mortars. Under cover of a smoke screen and under heavy artillery barrage a Japanese force succeeded in crossing Soochow Creek at a point about a mile from the western perimeter. The Japanese claim that the detachment gain a good foothold while a Chinese communique says that only eighty men landed fifty of which were killed and others were forced to retreat. It is feared that unless the Chinese flank swings back some of Shanghai's finest homes in Hungjao Road area will be doomed. Meanwhile the British have drawn the attention of the Japanese authorities to an incident in which three British soldiers were injured to-day.

Shanghai, October 31: Three British soldiers were injured this morning when a Japanese shell exploded near the British barracks in Jessfield Park.

Shanghai, October 31: The Japanese military at Shanghai requested this morning the British, American and French Consulates-General to notify their nationals to evacuate Nantao immediately, declaring that the Japanese forces would start a severe bombardment of the area this afternoon.

Nanking, October 31: Tear gas is alleged by a military report to have been used by the Japanese who broke through the Chinese line at Chingshuichen and Hsinchichachai at the Shanghai war zone on October 28. Seizing the opportunity of a turn of the wind, the Chinese forces, the report states, launched a counter-attack and recaptured their positions.

Soochow, October 31: One of a squadron of three Japanese bombers which raided Quinsan yesterday morning was brought down by Chinese anti-aircraft guns. Prior to their raid on Quinsan, the three bombing machines attacked the Soochow station where they dropped over ten bombs, causing slight damage.

Taiyuan, October 31: Over 2,000 Japanese troops were enveloped and routed by Chinese forces at Mentengtsun, a point west of Hsinking, yesterday when they launched an offensive upon Chinese positions there, a military communique states.

Large numbers of the Japanese, the communique reveals, were bayoneted or blasted to pieces with hand grenades by the Chinese, who also sustained considerable casualties.

Tsinan, Oct. 31.
 Handbills of a preposterous nature were distributed over the city yesterday morning by a Japanese plane, which was later driven away by Chinese anti-aircraft gun fire.

Three Japanese planes reconnoitred over Tsitsing, Tsingchen, Chowping, Wehsien, Taiyang, and Shanghai, and dropped two bombs between Taiyang and Shanghai.

 A member of the crew of the s.s. Jean Weems interviewed telephonically by Reuter said that a seaplane believed to be Italian dropped sixteen bombs four of which fell in the hold of the ship which sank in fifteen minutes stern first. The ship was slightly afloat and prior to dropping a bomb the plane signalled her to take to her boats.

Intention causing dissension between Shanghai and Nanking.

LOCAL CHINESE LADIES DO THEIR BIT

War Work Behind The Lines

Busy as a beehive—such was the impression formed by a "Daily Press" representative as soon as he entered the rooms of the Hong Kong Chinese Women's Relief Association in China Building yesterday. Here, there and wherever space could be found among the stacks of finished articles, all carefully packed and labelled in readiness for shipment, groups of ladies and young girls were actively occupied at their various voluntary duties.

The time was said to be a slack period, and it was gathered that as many as a hundred and fifty or more turned up regularly in the afternoon, and staying very often till well after dark to make the things urgently required for the care of soldiers and refugees in China's war-stricken areas.

Started in August, last by a group of well-known local Chinese ladies, the Association has a membership today of close to 2,000. An idea of the work which it has already accomplished may be obtained from the fact that up to the present twelve large shipments have been dispatched to Nanking, and another enormous batch of articles is awaiting transportation. Amongst the articles that have been sent were padded suits, pyjamas, blankets, sheets, pillows, gauze, bandages, hospital supplies and emergency first-aid outfits.

NOT ITALIAN BASE

Journalists Tour Marjoca

Paris, Oct. 31.
 Two foreign journalists made a tour of Marjoca which is the sole naval base of the Insurgents. A French paper, whose correspondent was one of the journalists, stated that the tour was arranged in order to dispel the rumour that the Italians made the island the base of operations against the Spanish Government.

The journalists stated that they observed that the officers and men stationed on the island were Spaniards, while many tourists were still visiting the island and the British among them considerably outnumbered Italians.

FUNERAL OF ULSTERS

British garrison authorities have intimated that they will reject the participation of any Japanese in the burial service.

SOVIET PROTEST LODGED

Border Clash Explained

Moscow, Oct. 31.
 The Soviet version of the border clash between Soviet and Manchukuo troops on Thursday is given by the Tass-Agency which states that it is reported that a Khabarovsk detachment of the Manchukuo troops crossed the Russian border in the Poyser district and fired on the Soviet Border Patrol who returned fire and forced Manchukuo to retreat across the border.

It is understood that the Commissariat for Foreign Affairs has instructed the Soviet Embassy at Tokyo and the Soviet Consul-General at Harbin to protest to the Japanese and Manchukuo Governments, demanding that measures be taken to prevent any further violations on the border.

The Gillette No. 77 Set illustrated here, which contains the latest Gillette razor, three Blue Gillette slotted blades and two blade holders in a new type of moulded box, has these definite advantages.

The razor is made in two pieces instead of three, as formerly,
thus making it easier and quicker to clean, assemble and use.

The blades are made by the new electrical-tempering process.
They give not only closer, cleaner shaves than you have ever had before, but also more shaves per blade.

The case is ideal for hot and humid climates as it is so easy to keep clean.

Look at Your Skin

Skin Specialists declare that 80 out of every 100 women suffer from skin outbreaks, spots, pimples, blotches, and 'muddy' complexions UNNECESSARILY!

Ugly complexion faults are woman's most common enemy. Few escape. Some resort to heavy powdering in an effort to hide them. Whilst others, due to consistent wrong treatment, cause the skin to become highly sensitive, coarse and blemished.

To make your skin clear and healthy, your complexion fresh and smooth, use Cuticura.

Cleanse the skin with Cuticura Soap twice a day. Its luxuriant and mildly antiseptic lather is soothing and softening; washes away pore-deep dirt which causes blackheads, enlarged pores and ugly complexion defects. And to rid the skin of pimples, skin outbreaks, rashes or irritations use Cuticura Ointment direct on the affected part before washing with the soap. Its antiseptic action kills germs, soothes and heals and quickly clears the skin.

Try Cuticura to-day. See how soon your skin improves, your complexion becomes smoother, more attractive than ever before.

BISHOP HALL'S SERMON

Parable Of Wheat And Tares

The following sermon was preached by the Bishop of Hong Kong at St. John's Cathedral yesterday:

The religion of Jesus is a religion of action. And there is need at this time, above all things, for action. But what action? We long to help and there is so little we can do.

In a letter from England this week a man wrote to me, "I seem to be more moved by what is happening in China than I have ever been over Spain, though it is so much nearer home."

Moved—we are all moved—but moved to do what? Emotion which ends in emotion is false emotion—as false and frivolous, as dangerous to personality, and as immoral as the use of sex emotion as an end-in-itself, with no relation to the persons involved.

There are some words in the New Testament that may be fruitful in action. They are from Our Lord's parable of the wheat and the tares. The words are—

"Let both grow together."

The world seems more tares than wheat to-day. And as our emotions are stirred by the hatefulness of their strangling power, we long to pull them up. But, as in a nightmare, we are held back. We pour out our poor prayers. We spend ourselves in every effort to provide medical and other relief for the suffering. Our hearts go out in indignant sympathy. But we cannot reach the tares.

CHURCH IS SUFFERING

The Church in China is suffering terribly, especially in the big cities where she has been strongest and most vigorous. Our schools are closed in Canton and we have to save their staffs from starvation, and the Christian congregations there are no longer able, as they have been, completely to support their pastors.

And in Japan is not the Church still more seriously beset? Only yesterday I received from a Japanese Christian in Hong Kong, whom I know to be a humble and devout follower of Our Lord, a booklet printed in English contending that in fighting the Nanking Government Japan is saving China from Communism.

We have surely a difficult but urgent duty to our brother Christians in Japan, to open their eyes to see that this statement is not only dishonest, but ludicrous, and a tragic stain on the honour of a great country.

We must not waver from our assertion that the Japanese Government are doing a grievous wrong to a great sister nation. We must, I believe, refuse to make any purchase which will strengthen Japan financially and so provide more sinews of war.

But we must make every effort to render service and help where we can, and to keep open every channel of friendship and acquaintance with the Japanese people and the Japanese Church. We must let truth and love grow together.

SOWED GOOD SEED

The Master sowed good seed. While men slept an enemy sowed tares. The servants come and ask what is to be done. The Master answers, as no good farmer ever would, "Leave the weeds till harvest. Let both grow together—till the harvest."

There are some things very clear in this parable.

The tares are sown by an enemy. Evil is not of God, but of some enemy, some spiritual principle of evil, which goes beyond our understanding.

There is, then, beyond our understanding, some purpose of God in letting Evil grow till it gets such a stronghold. It makes life uncomfortable and difficult, but we need have no fear for the ultimate outcome.

Lastly, notice this. It was while men slept the tares were sown. It is possible that the Master was not asleep. He preferred to be powerless to prevent evil happening just so long as those who should have shared his waking watchfulness were asleep at their posts.

Is it possible that God will not move to overthrow evil until he receives spiritual co-operation from us? Are we Christian men and women spiritual enough to be, of any use in the fight against evil?

BROADCASTS

In Foreign Languages

Plan Welcomed In London

London, Oct. 30.

A warm welcome was accorded in the Commons yesterday to the announcement of the Postmaster-General, Major Tryon, of the decision to broadcast in foreign languages, and it is well received in the press.

A full statement of the subject will be made next week by the British Broadcasting Corporation which will conduct the service. "The Times" recalls that there have been frequent complaints of anti-British propaganda broadcast regularly from Bari in Arabic and other languages of the Near and Middle East as well as in some of the languages of India.

At one time the Government seemed to think that this attempt to poison the atmosphere could safely be treated with contempt. Lately, however, they have taken a less complacent view of the possible effect of this kind of propaganda.

It may be taken for granted, adds "The Times," that no attempt will be made to answer propaganda by counter-propaganda. The object of the service is to supply what Major Tryon aptly calls "straight news" where at present there is an oversupply of news that is not straight.

The "Daily Telegraph" says the announcement is eminently satisfactory. The step was inevitable if not already overdue.

WORST SUFFERERS

Not all programmes now being broadcast in foreign languages are necessarily propaganda or at any rate propaganda of an undesirable kind. But a great many of them are notoriously and scandalously subversive and the British Empire has been among the worst sufferers from this subtle peace time aggression.

It goes without saying that the British Government has had and will have no part or lot in such unsavoury methods. The programmes which it is proposed to broadcast in languages other than English will contain nothing capable of causing any offence to the Government, or people of recipient countries.

The "Daily Herald" makes the same point. It adds that the tradition of impartiality and objectivity which the B.B.C. has already established should be helpful here. If Daventry establishes that kind of reputation on international world listeners, it will be doing the kind of work which the British people wants to see it do. It will probably be a most popular international station as well.

The "Manchester Guardian" says no one would wish to see this country adding to the world's difficulties by wireless attacks on its neighbours.—

"We are taking with us the best memories of the kind reception you and your collaborators have accorded us."

"I add a small gift which I ask you to remit to the admirable organization of winter relief work."

ANGLO-GERMAN CLASH

Blank Refusal Of British Plan

London, Oct. 29.

Herr von Ribbentrop, German Ambassador to London, told the Non-Intervention Committee to-day that the Soviet formula, indicating a willingness to consider belligerent rights after the withdrawal of the bulk of volunteers in Spain "means for us a blank refusal of this point of the British plan."

The granting of belligerent rights and the re-establishment of control were essential and preliminary conditions for the withdrawal of volunteers, said Herr von Ribbentrop.

The German delegate asked if Russia would participate in non-intervention in the future, or intervene openly.

"I do not see a way to lead us further if the Soviet does not change her attitude. It is impossible for me to agree to any action based on a solution which is not approved unanimously," stated Herr von Ribbentrop.

He suggested that the Chairman of the Committee should devise some plan and Russia be persuaded to fall in line.

Replying, Mr. Ivan Maisky, the Soviet delegate, said: "The Soviet Government can no longer take any responsibility for a policy of non-intervention which it considers unjust, futile, and tending to encourage the aggressors."

"In conformity with this attitude the Soviet cannot accept in their entirety the British plan of July 14, or the French proposals based on the British plan, submitted to the subcommittee on October 16."

The Soviet Government, he said, was ready to support decisions which could be considered as contributing to genuine non-intervention.—

Strengthen your body against Feverish Diseases

The chance of catching malaria and other feverish diseases is far greater, if the power of resistance is lowered. Lack of minerals in the body usually causes this lowering. Tiredness, heart troubles, irritability and dizziness are signs that your power of resistance is below par.

Prevent serious trouble by taking Kalzana tablets regularly. Kalzana replenishes the mineral content of the body and blood cells in a perfectly natural way, strengthens the whole system, and so prevents serious infectious diseases, such as malaria, skin rashes, etc.

A grateful Kalzana user, Mr. E. B., writes:

"I have suffered from very bad nervous headaches for 10 years and after having taken Kalzana I feel as fit as a fiddle."

GOD'S COUNTRY AND THE WOMAN

"God's Country and The Woman," Warner Bros.' brilliant picture of the James Oliver Curwood novel of the same name—dealing with a feud between lumber companies in the deep forests of the Great North West—opens to-day at the King's Theatre, with George Brent and Beverly Roberts in the leading roles.

The thrillingly dramatic romance of the story is heightened by the fact that the scenes—almost all of which are in the open—were photographed wholly in natural colours. Brent and Miss Roberts have an excellent supporting cast including such outstanding favourites as Barton MacLane, Robert Barrat, Allen Hale, El Brendel, Billy Bevan and Joseph King. Hundreds of real lumberjacks appear in the exciting scenes.

MARKED WOMAN

When a racketeer takes over a night-club for the purpose of "taking over" its customers, he naturally wants the hostesses to be "dressed up real nifty."

And that's how come Bette Davis has eleven beautiful gowns designed to display in night club sequences of her newest First National film, "Marked Woman," which is now at the Majestic Theatre. Rosalind Marquis, also has eleven. Lola Lane and Isabel Jewell have ten each. Mayo Methot and Jane Bryan nine.

"Marked Woman" is tense melodrama, exposing the night-club racket. Besides Miss Davis, and the other players mentioned, the cast includes Humphrey Bogart and Eduardo Cinnelli. Lloyd Bacon directed.

THE ROAD BACK

To-day marks the long awaited showing of Universal's "The Road Back" at the Queen's and Alhambra Theatres. To-day, the picture of Erich Maria Remarque's heart-rending novel about conditions in Germany after the war has been six years on the way. The perspective of time has added new values to his story, which are brought into strong relief through the medium of the camera.

Because of what he wrote in "The Road Back," Remarque was exiled from his native land, so strongly did his book stir national feeling. The author saw the unrest growing, saw the revolution that followed food riots, saw returned soldiers facing the trap of starvation.

Remarque saw the wives whose husbands never came back; saw the sweethearts who did not wait for the return of the men they had promised to marry. He saw turmoil, human drama being lived every day. He put into his story, "The Road Back," everything that he saw. He described the emotions of vibrant flesh-and-blood people. The characters were ready to step out of the book and into a movie set.

The cast includes Barbara Read, John King, Richard Cromwell, Slim Summerville, Andy Devine, Louise Fazenda, Noah Berry, Jr., Maurice Murphy, John Emery.

EYE-WITNESS STORIES OF KILLING

"SHELL CAME OVER AND BURST"

Shanghai, Oct. 30.

In eerie darkness outside Jessfield Railway station, held by the Chinese with Japanese troops only 500 or 600 yards away, Reuter this morning obtained eye-witness accounts of the killing and wounding of Ulster Riflemen yesterday.

Corporal Frank Collins, from Belfast, said: "Howard and Mallon were standing outside Post J2, just on the south side of the railway bridge, when a shell came over and burst."

"Mallon was hit in the back by shrapnel and killed instantly, while Howard was struck in the chest and died a few minutes afterwards."

"McGuire and Delaney, who were also standing outside the post, were seriously injured."

"We others escaped, because we were inside the post at this time." Chinese soldiers holding Jessfield Station anxiously asked Reuter what had happened.

When told that three British soldiers had been killed, they said: "We have lost our brothers."

Rifeman Alexander Steward, from Portrush, County Antrim, told Reuter the story of O'Toole's death.

KILLED INSTANTLY

"Between 7 and 7.30 last night was on duty outside the post when a shell came over my head and exploded about fifty yards away. Splinters went in the Honeyland Cafe and hit O'Toole in the head, killing him almost instantly."

"Meanwhile, a Chinese man and woman were killed in the street where a milling crowd of Chinese refugees was running as fast as they could from the scene."

"It was miraculous that no more were killed. 'People of all nationalities—Chinese, English and American among them—dashed into our re-doubt for refuge, until the place couldn't hold any more."

"My pals here ran to help Chinese refugees to safety and were lucky to come out alive."

Among part in the rescue besides Steward were Riflemen John William Morrison, from Belfast, who is a veteran of the Great War, Alexander McDowell, from Coleraine, Londonderry, James Stephens, from Dublin, and Gerald Byrne, from Plymouth.

CRITICAL OPERATION

Shanghai, Oct. 30.

Doctors are fighting to save the lives of Riflemen Jack McGuire, Strabane, County Tyrone, and Robert Delaney, Belfast, two of the Royal Ulsters who were wounded by shell-fire yesterday afternoon when on duty at an International Settlement advance post. Both men were alive at 4 a.m. to-day.

Etienne Girardot, Lionel Atwill, Henry Hunter, Larry Blake, Gene Garrick, Greta Gynle, Spring Byington, Laura Hope Crews, Frank Reicher and Jean Rouverol.

One of the soldiers underwent a critical operation at 3 a.m., but medical men would not disclose what it was.

These two wounded are in the International Recreation Club, Bubbling Well Road, which has been converted into a British military hospital.

Shanghai, it is believed, is entering into the most dangerous phase of the hostilities, with fighting surging around the Settlement's western boundary which is manned by British troops. They are in constant danger.

There is a serious threat of a Japanese landing in Pootung in an endeavour to envelop the Chinese troops entrenched there. They also seek to surround Nantao, it is believed. The entry of Nantao may not only involve the destruction of valuable British properties, wharves and warehouses, but would render the Bund unsafe.

Similarly, the western district fighting, which is causing Chinese and foreigners in that area to move into the heart of the Settlement, threatens the destruction of numerous private homes of hundreds of Britons and Americans.

Shells have already pierced the walls of two British houses in this district. The inmates had already evacuated.

Shanghai is bracing itself of a further ordeal—Reuter.

NINE POWER TALKS

It is expected that Count Luigi Aldrovandi and Signor Marescotti will represent Italy at the Nine Power Conference. It is taken for granted that Count Ciano will not go. ### "WHAT WE DESERVE"

London, Oct. 30.

Lord Nuffield in a speech last night said that nothing irritates him more than when the present prosperity in Britain is described as a boom.

"It is prosperity that we deserve," he said. "We have taught most nations of the world how to manufacture, but seem to have forgotten the way ourselves."

SEND CABLE TO 9-POWER CONFERENCE

Canton, Oct. 30: The following telegram was despatched by a group of Chinese university professors in Canton to the Nine-Power Conference which convenes at Brussels on Nov. 3:

To the Chairman of the Brussels Conference:

The conference is seeking the restoration of peace in East Asia. To make a true peace justice must underlie every particular item. The University Professors of Canton protest against any surrender of right to a passing expediency.

The Nine-Power Treaty honestly aimed at a righteous peace. It should be enforced in full on all parties.

We believe that the first requirement of a lasting peace in the Far East is the re-establishment of China's sovereign rights prior to September 18, 1931.

The invading armies and the naval aircraft guilty of such outrageous attacks on our universities, crowded cities and humble villages must be withdrawn from both mainland and islands.

We urge with all possible emphasis that the Powers which believe in justice and humanity apply concerted pressure on the aggressor to this end.

No violation of China's integrity or compromise of her independence will be accepted by her brave defenders in arms or to

CHINESE OCCUPY FORMER JAPANESE DEFENCES

Shanghai, Oct. 30: It is officially reported that the Chinese forces which withdrew south-west from Chapel and Kiangwan earlier in the week are now in occupation of the former Japanese defences near the Japanese-owned Pong Tien Cotton and Spinning Mill south of Soochow Creek.

Last night the Japanese opened a barrage on this line with trench mortars, starting a number of fires and destroying part of the defence works. However, the Chinese forces have repaired the defences to-day.

ADVANCE HELD IN CHECK

CHINESE BEAT BACK JAPANESE IN SHANTUNG

Peiping, Oct. 31.

The Japanese advance on Shantung has not only come to a standstill but the Chinese made counter-attacks there yesterday. The advance on Shansi has also been checked considerably.

On the Shensi front two Japanese columns which had entered the province from the east via Ning-tse Pass are advancing on the provincial capital of Talyuanfu and have occupied the towns of Minting and Yangchuan, the latter place being only 70 kilometres from Talyuanfu.

Talyuanfu was raided twice from the air yesterday in the course of the "dog fight" that followed. One Japanese plane was shot down.

The advance on Shansi, however, is delayed by the strong resistance put up by the Chinese, and the former Eighth Red Army is a constant source of danger to the Japanese.—Transocean.

JAPANESE LAUNCH NEW ATTACK

Peiping, Oct. 31.

The Japanese troops this morning launched a fresh attack along a fifteen-mile front against the Chinese positions in the Hsinking Hills, forty miles north of Talyuanfu. Meanwhile the Japanese forces advancing to Talyuanfu from the east claim the capture of Yangchuan after sharp fighting.—Reuter.

INNER MONGOLIA CLAIM

Peiping, Oct. 30.

The Autonomous Government of Inner Mongolia, established a few weeks ago by the Japanese, also holds sovereignty over Outer Mongolia, declares a Japanese report.

However, the Government established in Kweihsia can only function in most parts of Sulyuan and Northern Chahar.—Reuter.

JAPANESE DIVISION TO BE SENT TO NORTH SHANSI

Talyuan, Oct. 30: In view of the stubborn resistance put up by the Chinese the Japanese military command will dispatch one more division of troops to north Shansi, according to information from authoritative sources.

Escorted by a number of tanks and 30 truck loads of infantrymen, a Japanese engineering corps attempted to repair a bridge at Houyao, north of Yenmenkwan Pass, which has been damaged by Chinese guerrilla troops. However, they were compelled to abandon their task when the Japanese troops were routed by Chinese forces in a fierce engagement.—Central News.

Major Disaster Threat In Shanghai

Shanghai, Oct. 30.

A disaster of appalling magnitude may visit Shanghai if the gasometer situated within 300 yards of the headquarters of the Chinese "Doomed Battalion" in Chapel is blown up in the course of threatened Japanese shelling operations.

The gasometer has already been splattered with machine gun bullets, but tragedy will result if the explosions of bombs and shells across Soochow Creek result in blowing it up.

The whole area around the gasometer consists of closely packed and densely populated Chinese houses.

British officials are taking an extremely serious view of the situation.

Major-General A. P. D. Telfer-Smollett, commander of the International Defence Forces, today visited the Gas Company's offices, where he discussed the situation with worried and anxious officials of the Company.

Admiral Hasegawa, the Japanese Commander-in-Chief, has informed Major-General Telfer-Smollett and Brigadier-General Beaumont, the American commander, that the Japanese "reserve the right to take any steps" to dislodge the "doomed battalion."

Admiral Hasegawa says that for humanitarian reasons the Japanese have frequently advised the doomed Chinese troops to surrender, but "in view of their stubborn refusal, action has to be taken."

UNDISCLOSED PLANS

The Japanese have placed howitzers in position for shelling the "Alcazar" and have completed other undisclosed preparations.

Another warning was given today by Rear-Admiral Honda, the Japanese naval attaché, who said the time had arrived to take "extreme steps" to force the surrender of the doomed or suicide battalion.

He urged residents in the Settlement adjacent to the "Alcazar" to take all necessary precautions and safeguard themselves.

Rear-Admiral Honda said: "The Japanese realise that the attack might result in complications because of the proximity of the British and American defence sectors, but we cannot delay operations indefinitely."

The large-scale attempt to dislodge the doomed Chinese soldiers is expected to be made to-morrow (Sunday), when the stronghold, over which two Chinese flags at present are flying, will probably be shelled and bombed simultaneously.

Meanwhile, the beleaguered men have bored holes through the wall of their fortress through which they are taking pot shots at every Japanese they can see.—Reuter.

MORE JAPANESE DENIALS

London, Oct. 30.

A statement issued by the Japanese Embassy in London disclaims that the Japanese were responsible for the British casualties in Shanghai yesterday. It is stated that a thorough investigation established that there was no shelling by the Japanese military or marine forces after sunset, whereas the British authorities assert that the casualties occurred between 7.30 p.m. and 8 p.m.—Reuter.

ANTI-COMINTERN PACT ANNIVERSARY

Tokyo, Oct. 30.

The first anniversary of the conclusion of the anti-Comintern Pact between Japan and Germany will be celebrated on November 5.

It is reported that Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini will also broadcast messages from Berlin and Rome, respectively, to Japan.—Reuter.

JERUSALEM GATES ARE CLOSED

Jerusalem, Oct. 30.

The old walled city of Jerusalem has been placed under curfew, and five out of its seven gates closed.

ANTI-BRITISH MOVEMENT

Tokyo, Oct. 30.

A resolution that a national movement be immediately started to sever diplomatic relations with Great Britain, was passed to-day by the "Council on the Current Situation," an unofficial body mainly consisting of industrialists and members of the Lower House.

The resolution denounces the British attitude in the Sino-Japanese conflict.

The meeting also adopted a manifesto declaring that since the outbreak of the incident, Great Britain has failed to observe neutrality.

Britain, it alleges, has openly pursued an arrogant and insulting attitude to Japan.

Has consistently been assisting China in her struggle against Japan and has been the main driving force in persuading other Powers to convoke the Nine-Power Conference, apparently with the object of international intervention in the Chinese situation.

"The Japanese cannot allow the British to continue their present improper actions, un molested," which will serve to encourage Chinese persistence in resistance against Japan, and Chinese co-operation with the Comintern, thereby thwarting, and delaying establishment of peace in East Asia.—Reuter.

This has not occurred since the era of the Turkish occupation during the Great War.

Curfew was imposed owing to fresh outbreaks of outrages in the city.—Reuter.

SCHACHT NOT RESIGNING

Berlin, Oct. 30.

The rumoured resignation of Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, President of the Reichsbank, from his concurrent post of Minister of Economics, is now denied in official circles in Berlin.

It is stated there has never been a crisis concerning the Ministry.

The exact position at present is obscure but it is understood that it was only the personal intervention of Herr Hitler which induced Dr. Schacht to retain his position as head of the Ministry of Economics.—Reuter.

JAPANESE ADOPT NEW TACTICS TO ATTACK "DOOMED BATTALION"

Shanghai, Oct. 30.

The Japanese have adopted new tactics to crush the "doomed battalion" barricaded in the godown belonging to the Joint Savings Society in Chapel. They are moving their sandbag barricades closer and closer to the back of the godown to facilitate their attack on the besieged Chinese troops.

Several attempts to storm the godown were repelled to-day by the Chinese who fought gallantly with their rifles, machine-guns and handgrenades.

In a letter to General Sun Yuan-liang, Commander of the 88th Division, dated yesterday, Colonel Hsieh Chin-yuan, Vice-Commander of the "Doomed Battalion", declared that the 800 Chinese troops now barricaded in the godown would not disgrace the nation but would shed the last drop of blood to resist the Japanese.

Colonel Hsieh said that a military success and a military sacrifice would mean practically the same thing under special circumstances.

Meanwhile, General Sun Yuan-liang sent a letter to Mr. Tu Yueh-sheng, prominent Chinese resident in Shanghai, urging him to ask the Chinese and foreign public to stop sending "comfort" articles to the "doomed battalion".

While appreciating their sympathetic feelings, General Sun explained that this excessive amount of "comfort" articles would not mean much to the troops as they had decided to sacrifice their lives for the country.

General Sun opened that it would be more helpful to the present war of resistance to Japanese aggression if the public would purchase Nation Salvation Bonds or make donations to the war chest directly.—Central News.

NO MAJOR FIGHTING ON TIENTSIN FRONT

Tientsin, Oct. 30: There was no major fighting on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway front yesterday, military reports reveal.

A skirmish took place between a Chinese mobile unit and 200 Japanese troops at Wuchiao off the Tientsin-Pukow Railway in south Hopei. Having sustained heavy casualties, the Japanese retreated to Sangyuan on the Hopei-Shantung border.—Central News.

CHINESE COUNTER- OFFENSIVE IN EAST SHANSI ORDERED

Talyuan, Oct. 30: With defence works along the new positions completed the Chinese military command has ordered a general counter-offensive in east Shansi.

Severe fighting is expected to break out momentarily at Yangchuan, west of Niangtzekwan Pass on the Chengtai Railway, where heavy Chinese forces are concentrated.—Central News.

CURSE OF INDIA

Communal Feeling And Personal Jealousy

London, Oct. 26. Lord Willingdon, former Viceroy of India, speaking at Manchester today said communal feeling and personal jealousy were the curse of India, as these factors were preventing the smooth working of the Constitution.

How long it would take for India to reach the status of a Dominion depends on the Indians themselves, he said.

He added that Lancashire would never regain the old standard of trade in textiles with India, as the Indians were determined to produce as much cotton goods as possible in their own factories.

THE "DOOMED" BATTALION

Rarely, if ever, has a more glorious epic of heroism graced the pages of war's histories than that which was writ large by the "Doomed" Battalion in Shanghai during the four days when they stood to their post against overwhelming odds and kept their nation's flag flying.

Details of the valour, loyalty and self-sacrifice of those sturdy sons of China are too well known to require recapitulation. It will be sufficient to state that a meagre battalion of Chinese infantrymen, using a godown in Shanghai as an improvised fortress and hospital, surrounded by many thousands of elaborately equipped and trained Japanese soldiers, subjected to incessant bombing and shelling from all points of the compass, without any hope of success or relief, came through their terrible ordeal with hands down but not with hearts down. Eventually they evacuated their battered post with their arms, their flag and their wounded.

We offer our homage to those heroes.

If ever a nation needed inspiration to nerve it to still greater efforts and still greater sacrifices, then China has got that inspiration by virtue of the superb gallantry of the men of that "Doomed" Battalion. To us the conduct of those men characterises the sentiment of the entire Chinese nation. The cost counts nothing, the cause is everything. The cause of China is based on righteousness, liberality, independence and freedom. The Japanese aggressors would obliterate all such principles from the scheme of things, and by military dictatorship they would impose a species of slavery which would make the impositions of galleys seem like comparative freedom. They would have China accept a peace without honour: they would demand the acceptance by China of an agreement which would be an everlasting humiliation calculated to bring one of the greatest nations of all-time into dismal contempt. Japan, in a word, would have what China shall never give—her birthright. If China capitulated now, she would be saved in the physical sense but lost in the eternal one, the spiritual one, which is the only one that counts in the fullness of time.

China will not surrender, and provided her present tenacity of purpose endures, she must eventually succeed—hands down—not hands up.

It is that spirit which animated the men of the "Doomed" Battalion which has maintained the millions of China during the past three months of ruthless trial. It shall maintain the nation right through till that great and glorious day when the Japanese have been "seen off" the premises. That day shall come if China stands as true to herself as those men of the "Doomed" Battalion stood to their pledge.

Numbers and armaments are as nothing compared with the spirit which animates a nation. China is blessed with the right spirit, and so long as that endures, then all's well and it will end well.

Miss Dolly Ellis, of Shanghai, will contribute several items to the variety concert, in aid of war relief in North China, to be held at the Queen's Theatre on November 17 under the auspices of the Hong Kong Y's Men's Club.

Italian Loan Rumours

London, Oct. 30. Rumours that British banks are prepared to grant Italy a loan for economic development of Ethiopia, are emphatically denied in City circles.

According to the rumours in question, a loan was to be discussed by the Foreign Secretary, Mr. Anthony Eden, with the Italian Foreign Minister, Count Ciano, on the occasion of the meeting of the two statesmen at the forthcoming Brussels Conference.

It is pointed out that similar rumours have periodically cropped up since the conquest of Abyssinia, whenever Anglo-Italian relations appeared to have improved.

TIME TO USE THE BIG STICK

(October, 31, 1937.)

It was that essentially practical man of affairs, Theodore Roosevelt, former President of the United States of America, who once expressed the opinion that whilst it was all very well to employ soft words it was judicious to "carry a big stick." According to his particularly vigorous policy there were times when it was prudent to use that big stick. Anyway, the mere act of carrying it had a very salutary effect upon recalcitrant members of the family of nations.

It is when one contemplates the great figures of history that one wonders if the world has become more decadent than delicate.

It is not the time to mince words or to confuse a clear issue by resorting to the circumlocutions of diplomatic phraseology, and, therefore, it is right and proper to express our considered opinion that Japan has demonstrated by her acts that she has deliberately planned to provoke Britain to such an extent as to make hostilities between our nation and Japan inevitable. To recapitulate the many acts of nauseating petulance and mailed-fisted insolence which have been committed by Japan against Britishers would, we feel, be entirely superfluous in view of the world-wide publicity which a vigilant Press has rightly accorded them, but it seems to us that after Britain magnanimously accepted Japan's "explanation" for the attempted murder of her Ambassador, acts calculated to precipitate a crisis between Britain and Japan have followed in quick succession.

Where is all this going to end? More to the point is it to inquire, When are these acts of wanton aggression going to stop?

We can only hope that we will not be misunderstood for what we are about to say, but say it we shall for we feel it to be the truth. The present enigmatical policy of Britain in regard to the Sino-Japanese situation is certainly not adding to Britain's prestige in the Far East. Nobody who is a reasoning being in possession of his normal mental faculties desires war. That cannot be denied. But surely there are occasions when actions are more eloquent than words, and in regard to Britain's relations with Japan that occasion is now or never.

Of the valour, efficiency and loyalty of His Britannic Majesty's Forces in the Far East there is absolutely no question. Their individual and collective restraint under most exasperating circumstances constitutes a magnificent example of that sound discipline which makes for greatness of achievement. Come those significant words from the ranks of the Ulsters in Shanghai. "We have lost our brothers." Subsequently comes the request from British diplomatic sources to the Japanese "to be more careful." Such politeness, such mealy-mouthed courtesy is revolting. To the man in the street who is the real ruler of the nation, it must seem suspiciously like impotence.

There is no cause for panic or hysteria. Britain can always be relied upon to turn up trumps—eventually. Those who are slow to anger are cyclonic in their fury. That is the British characteristic. There is, we assert, no cause for fear or alarm. However, it were well for the prestige of Britain if her present Government's placid policy were slightly altered to meet the exigencies of the crisis in the Far East.

Britain has the big stick, and she has the strength and nerve to use it. Remember that sound old saying, "Spare the rod and spoil the child." Japan is behaving like a spoilt child. What she needs is a good sound spanking, and the sooner she gets it the better. It will save the effusion of more innocent blood.

If Gossip We Must

(By Penelope)

We nominate for popularity in the Colony this week Mrs. Alice Chung, one of North China's busiest social bees, who is proving the incentive for much winning and dining on the part of her many friends in Hong Kong.

Mrs. Chung arrived here only a few days ago en route to Shanghai, and has just completed an extensive tour of the United States where, in between intervals when she was not catching trains, she was the house guest of Princess Der Ling.

DEPARTURE POSTPONED
At first it was thought that Mrs. Chung would only pay Hong Kong a fleeting visit, her original intention being to proceed to her home in Shanghai with all haste, but owing to the pressure brought to bear by friends whose argument is that her visits to the Colony are all too few, she has now graciously conceded to postpone her departure for a matter of another ten days. If those ten days are going to be anything like the last few, all we can say is that Mrs. Chung will be a very busy young woman indeed.

AMONG OTHER THINGS
Among the first to compliment the charming visitor was Mr. Li Chor-chi of the Overseas Chinese Banking Corporation, who gave an informal luncheon in the Hong Kong Hotel last Friday, in her honour. Noted among the guests were Mrs. Rose Tsung, Mrs. Y. K. Chow, Mrs. Arline Lee, Mr. F. R. Lamb, Mr. C. M. Cumming, Mr. Tay Chai-koon, the Messrs. Lim Sok Leng and Lim Teo Leng, Mr. A. F. Sangster and Mr. Alec. Elmer Pratt.

Last night Mr. Li Chor-chi again entertained, when more of Mr. Li's friends had the opportunity to meet Mrs. Chung.

The function was in the nature of a musical evening and about thirty guests were present at Mr. Li's delightful "Corner House" at Kai Tak to enjoy the programme. The latter included songs by Mrs. Muriel Roet, Mr. Gus D'Aquino, and renderings by Pelligatti and Maestro Gualdi.

HEROISM

"HATS OFF TO THE DOOMED BATTALION"

(To The Editor, "The Hong Kong Daily Press")

Dear Sir.—While all the rest of the world can have nothing but deep admiration for the "Doomed Battalion" in Shanghai for their heroic stand against the despoilers of their country, it is left to a descendant of the Samurai in the person of Rear-Admiral Tobio Honda to cast a slur on their performance with the words attributed to him in this morning's telegram from Shanghai: "We (the Japanese presumably) who know the nature of the Chinese, do not hold the same view of their heroism!"

This officer may or may not be publishing a convincing statement, but may one politely ask this gentleman to enlighten the world as to what, in his own, and in his countrymen's opinion, constitutes heroism? Is it the rain of death and destruction on thousands of helpless and defenceless human beings, with the object of testifying to the love of the butcher for his victims? Would it be such daring deeds that would appeal to the admiration of the doughty Admiral?

One word more. Though Japan has been endeavouring for years past and particularly in the last few months, to convince the Chinese of their love for them, these very steadily remain unconvinced, and they strongly suspect that what is theirs, and not their persons which is attractive to the Japanese. Very foolish, but there it is.

However, leaving the matter for future clarification and also leaving to the admirably expressive Admiral the halo of the glory his remarkable words must earn for him, allow me, Sir, to express what I believe to be the feeling of all right-thinking men with the words "Hats off to the brave 'Doomed Battalion!'" Yours etc., Septic.

S. CHINA BEAT POLICE

LAI SHU WING SHINES AGAIN

South China "A" played a characteristic game when they met the Police in a 1st. Division League soccer match on the Club ground yesterday afternoon. Judicious attack, splendid passing and out and out superior team-work won them a not unexpected victory with a score of 4-2.

The Police opened with a fine burst of energy, and showed remarkable initiative for about ten minutes. Howlett and Johnston took the ball up several times, and their frequent assaults upon the Chinese defence would have been successful had they found the necessary support from their own side.

Biding their time with patience, the Chinese waited for the Police to get exhausted. Then, by a series of well-placed passes they forced play into their opponents' half of the field. It did not take long for Cheuk Shek-kam to score the first goal. Lai Shu-wing followed a short time later with another.

By this time, it was evident that the Police were losing grip of the game. The Chinese were now strictly on the aggressive, with the redoubtable Lai Shu-wing as the pivot of a well-sustained attack. Notwithstanding the fine efforts of Pile and Bone, the Police had all that they could handle in trying to send the ball away from their goal area. But the Chinese meant to score another goal before half-time, and score they did when Lai Shu-wing caught the Police custodian, Manning, unaware with a swift, unimpeded shot.

The most outstanding feature of play in the second half was the excellent Chinese marking. To Kwai-shing, together with Lai Shu-wing, outwitted the Police almost every time. Later Fung King-cheung found an opportunity, and scored the fourth goal with an admirably well-directed shot from a fair distance.

Led by Gough, who made good use of a few openings, the Police began to brace up. The Chinese, realising this, swung quickly into the defence. Howlett, who had hitherto found no chance for head-work, for which he enjoys some reputation, now made several excellent head passes, and once did actually try to head the ball into the goal but was defeated by the vigilant Chinese goalkeeper, Chu Siew-hing.

The nought which the Police had up to this time was wiped off by Willerton, who got in a deserved goal. Shortly afterwards, Green converted a pass from Howlett, and brought the score to 4-2. Play ended shortly afterwards.

The teams were:
South China "A"—Chu Siew-hing; Mak Shu-ho; Lee Tin-sang; Lau Hing-choi; Leung Wing-chiu; Lee Kwok-wai; To Kwai-shing; Lai Shu-wing; Fung King-cheung; Cheuk Shek-kam and Cheung Moon-wing.
Police—Manning; Bone; Pile; Parker; Gough; Brittain; Willerton; Morrison; Johnston; Howlett and Green.

H.K. ENGINEERS BEAT MEDICALS

At Sookunpoo yesterday afternoon, the Engineers beat the Medicals in a 3rd. Division League football match by 2 goals to nil.

SHAI LADIES AT HOCKEY

The unusually formidable defence of the Shanghai Ladies hockey team was a feature of their match with the "Y" Ladies at King's Park on Saturday afternoon, which ended in a goalless draw.

Miss Gladys Ephgrave performed well at goal, clearing a number of what appeared to be "dead-certs" when the "Y" forwards were pounding hard at her from a dangerously close range.

The Shanghai ladies were very well disposed as a team, and their agile attacks and clever clearances were a delight to watch. Miss Esther Bloomfield and Miss Pettigrew proved to be great assets to the side, breaking many a rush with great courage and skill.

The "Y" team was not quite up to scratch, although Miss Marjorie Westcott and Mrs. Burke provided plenty of initiative.

The teams were:
Shanghai Ladies—Miss Gladys Ephgrave; Miss E. A. Bloomfield and Mrs. J. M. Rignell; Miss W. Klein; Miss P. Pettigrew and Miss P. Karanjia; Miss M. Bloomfield; Mrs. V. Hutton; Mrs. M. Williams; Miss Iva Buchanan and Miss D. Bloomfield.

"Y" Ladies—Miss J. Lakeman; Mrs. M. E. Burke and Miss A. Fowler; Miss K. Tonge; Miss M. McCaw and Mrs. J. D. MacLean; Miss Murray; Mrs. G. C. Burnett; Miss V. Bradbury; Mrs. J. Gardner and Miss M. Westcott.

OTHER RESULTS

St. Andrew's first team beat the R.U.R. Ladies by 2-1.

St. Andrew's Juniors beat the Recrelo ladies at King's Park by 2-1.

Both games were played on the C.B.A. ground, King's Park.

GARDEN FETE A SUCCESS

The annual Garden Fete of the Kowloon Tong Cricket Club, held in the grounds of No. 3 Duke Street, Kowloon Tong, on Saturday, was a great success. The grounds were gaily decorated with coloured flags and paper decorations, and filled with attractively prepared stalls of toys, confectionery, etc.

Mrs. A. W. Bartholomew, wife of His Excellency the General Officer Commanding Troops, opened the fete, and was introduced by the Rt. Rev. Bishop R. O. Hall.

The main attraction of the Fete was the Fancy Dress Parade, organised by Mrs. Booker, which provided two classes for boys and girls over seven years of age and two for those over seven years of age and two for those over seven years of age. The judges were Mrs. Bartholomew, Mrs. T. H. King, M.B.E., and Mrs. R. O. Hall.

Miss June McMahon won first prize in the first section, with her costume "Danger Signals," on which were painted various warnings. Master Derek Foxall carried off the first prize in the second section, dressed as a cowboy.

In the third class, Miss Beryl Sullivan, "Lavender Girl," was awarded first prize, and two prizes were presented in the fourth section. The first to Master Dudley Mahon, who, limping on a wooden crutch, his arm in a sling, a bandage around his head and an adhesive tape on his cheek, entered as "Football Results," and the second to Master Pat Bertram, as "Robin Hood."

A sum of $1,591 was collected during the fete and more money is expected to come in later.

SHELLS IN HEART
OF SETTLEMENTJapanese Bombard
Doomed Men

Shanghai, Oct. 31.

The "Doomed Battalion" suffered 40 casualties while evacuating the "Alcazar." Many shells landed in the heart of the Settlement during the Japanese bombardment of the doomed men. Three shells hit the "North China Daily News" building on the Bund striking a balcony on the eighth floor of the building and shattering all the windows nearby. Several Chinese were badly cut. Two members of the foreign staff who were on the roof said they heard the shells coming like an express train and ducked hurriedly. A shell struck a house near the British Consulate while another fell in Nanking Road which was deserted owing to the curfew. All shells are believed to be three-inchers.

FOOD FOUND

The Japanese naval authorities in a communique say that large quantities of "fresh foods such as milk, bread and other perishable goods were found in the "Doomed Battalion's" stronghold after evacuation" and add "The Japanese naval authorities cannot repress a feeling of wonder and displeasure at the presence of these provisions which must have been smuggled through the British defence lines."

The communique claims they found approximately 100 bodies in the "Alcazar."

CONTRIBUTION TO REALISATIONOf Effective
Non-Intervention

London, Oct. 30.

Although M. Malsky, the Soviet delegate, rejected paragraph 2 of the draft resolution dealing with granting of belligerent rights, he announced that his Government accepted paragraphs 3 and 4 of the non-intervention plan.

M. Malsky added that the Soviet was willing to support all measures which were conducive to establishment of an effective non-intervention policy, and was therefore willing to accept any decision of the committee which could be regarded as a contribution to realisation of effective non-intervention.

M. Malsky said granting of belligerent rights had nothing to do with non-intervention, and added that Russia would put forward fresh proposals at an opportune moment.

"DOOMED BATTALION"
THREE HUNDRED MEN REACH SAFETY
Relentless Japanese Barbarity

SHANGHAI, OCT. 31.

PREPARATIONS HAVE BEEN COMPLETED FOR THE EVACUATION OF THE "DOOMED BATTALION" UPON WHOM PRESSURE HAS BEEN BROUGHT TO BEAR. A SERIOUS SITUATION, HOWEVER, IS THREATENED BECAUSE THE JAPANESE HAVE POSITIONED TWO MACHINE-GUNS COMMANDING THE ROAD THROUGH WHICH THE CHINESE MUST PASS AND THEY ARE ALSO PLAYING SEARCHLIGHTS ON THE ROAD.

Shanghai, October 31 (6.40 a.m.): Running the gauntlet of bullets from the two Japanese machine guns commanding the road over which they had to pass and on which the Japanese searchlights were playing, members of the "Doomed Battalion" in Chapel are now pouring in batches of 30 into the International Settlement. Up to the present three hundred of them have reached safety. A number of wounded were aided by British troops and then handed over to the Settlement police.

The siege, which thrilled the world for four days came to a dramatic end in the early hours of this morning when the "Doomed Battalion," in obedience to the orders of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek evacuated their stronghold under a hail of bullets from Japanese machine guns.

In order to reach the Settlement safely the men had to cross the 20-yard wide Thibet Road separating "Alcazar" from the Bank of China warehouse which is used by a British post.

The entire battalion, except an undetermined number who were killed, safely negotiated the passage of fire for two hours.

LAST TO LEAVE

The last man to leave "Alcazar" was the regimental commander Hsieh Chin-yuan who was crying sorrowfully when he told Reuters that "we have lost face. We would never have left but we had orders to do so and could not disobey them."

An hour before the evacuation was due to start the Japanese trained two machine guns on the road which they lit up with searchlights and during the entire evacuation they poured a withering stream of machine-gun fire into the stronghold and along the road.

The men ran the gauntlet of fire in batches of thirty. As they stumbled to the British post, they smilingly shook hands with the British soldiers who warmly congratulated them on their courage. The Chinese handed over their rifles and equipment to the British soldiers and to the admiration of all the "Doomed Battalion" brought all their weapons along with them—about 400 rifles, two light machine-guns, six heavy machine-guns, many cases of ammunition, baskets of clothes, bedding and other possessions, but the best of all was that they carried 20 wounded comrades along the passage of fire.

All the wounded men were given first aid treatment by the British troops after which they were removed by ambulances to the British Military Hospital. Those that were not wounded were taken before dawn to the Race Course where they will be placed in a concentration camp for the duration of the war.

A trench mortar shell fell amongst a group of British soldiers who were putting the Chinese soldiers into lorries but providentially it did not explode.

Two shells struck the damaged Gas Company's building adjoining the gasometer but there were no casualties.

"NON-INTERVENTION
IS A SWINDLE"

Paris, Oct. 30.

"Non-intervention is a swindle," was the theme of a proclamation in favour of Republican Spain made to-night in the Paris Cycling Hall by the Popular Front.

A Left Wing Socialist leader and a Communist Senator, M. Cachin, both delivered long and impassioned addresses on Spain.

M. Cachin criticised the attitude of the Socialists, whom he called upon to abandon the policy of "non-intervention" and to re-examine their position regarding the proposal to re-open the Pyrenees frontier.

Another Left Wing deputy declared that the Pyrenees frontier must be opened forthwith.

His remarks resulted in a remarkable demonstration, the audience shouting "Re-open the frontier" and then singing the Internationale.

"DOOMED BATTALION"
COMPLETE EVACUATION

Shanghai, Oct. 31.

The "doomed battalion" who barricaded themselves in a godown at Chapel had safely completed their evacuation to Chinese territory by 2 o'clock early this morning.

The evacuation was ordered by Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, who finally yielded to the opinion that the sacrifice of these 800 heroic warriors in holding a beleaguered post would not help militarily whereas their survival would enable them to continue their efforts in the prolonged resistance to Japanese aggression.

Upon receipt of the Generalissimo's secret order transmitted to them by General Yang Hu, Garrison Commander for Shanghai, and General Sun Yuan-liang, Commander of the 88th Division to which they belong, the "doomed battalion" started the evacuation late last night, which they completed by 2 o'clock this morning.

Christianity Triumphs

London, Oct. 29.

Prayers in Japanese and Chinese were offered in Westminster Abbey to-night on the occasion of the Festival of Thanksgiving organised by the Anglican Communion in the Far East to celebrate the Jubilee of the Japanese Church and the Silver Jubilee of the Chinese Church.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, presiding, referred to the war and said no suffering could break the fellowship of prayer existing between the Japanese and Chinese churches. It was hard to the conflicting loyalties, but with prayer this difficulty could be overcome.

The Archbishop quoted a message from a member of the Chinese Church saying, "I and loyal Chinese hate the policy which Japan is carrying out in China with all my soul, but I shall go on working for the Christian brotherhood between our people." The Archbishop said it was in that spirit that Christianity would triumph over war.

DANGERS OF AERIAL
WARFARE

London, Oct. 30.

Air defence questions were dealt with by Sir Frederick Milne, Conservative member for East Leyton, in the House of Commons yesterday.

Sir Frederick said he had been in Germany a few weeks ago, and had been deeply impressed by the thorough organisation of German air defences.

He had been shown all over the Hamburg air defences. Sir Frederick spoke of the work done by General Hermann Goering, the Reich Air Minister and said that in Germany 12,000,000 civilians co-operated in air defence under 2,400 experts, while there were 6,000,000 fully-trained operatives.

These numbers, he stated, showed very clearly what measures were being taken in Germany for protection of the civilian population against the dangers of aerial warfare.

WALES SCORE FINE WIN

Cardiff, Oct. 30.
A crowd of 45,000 in showery weather to-day saw Wales defeat Scotland by two goals to one in the International football match. Wales adopted more rugged methods than their opponents, but in the opening exchanges their dashy forwards harassed the Scottish defenders, who were responsible for several instances of mis-kicking.

Several fruitless corners were forced by Wales and they missed a couple of chances. Scotland then settled down to some sweeping movements, causing Wales many anxious moments. Main sent over the bar from 12 yards.

Wales kept up a persistent attack and were rewarded in the 27th minute of the game when Bryn Jones scored with a grant left foot drive.

The Scottish forwards thrice completely outwitted the Welsh defence, but they finished very weak and the interval saw Wales holding on to their single goal lead.

After the resumption, Wales rushed the Scottish defence off their feet and a misunderstanding between their backs let in Morris who scored after the game had been in progress four minutes. Wales almost increased the lead a minute later. They were undoubtedly superior apart from their passing.

Scotland rallied, but the Welsh backs were very sound. Hanford was excellent as centre-half for Scotland, persisting in close passing which was unavailing against the fierce tackling of Phillips, who later had to leave the field injured. Massie then took a free kick to give Scotland a goal in the 25th minute. Scotland made desperate efforts to score the equaliser, but the ten men of the opposition held on grimly to the end.

PRESSMEN'S SOCCER WIN

Electricians Beaten By Odd Goal In 3

A team composed of the members of the European Press met the Hong Kong Electric in a friendly soccer match on the South China Athletic Association ground yesterday, the result being a win of two goals to one for the former.

With a comparatively stronger line of attack, the H.K. Electric pounded the Pressmen's defence with consistency, and hardly before the players had the opportunity to warm up, scored a well-placed goal.

Less than five minutes later, however, the Pressmen gained control, and in an active rush sent a forceful shot in the direction of the Electric's goal. The latter's custodian dropped the ball in hesitation and A. G. Quark ("S.C. Morning Post") scored.

Owing to the early collapse of R. Goldman, Stanley Lee kindly joined the side of the press, and considerably strengthened the line of attack. A straight send-in by G. C. Burnett ("China Mail") secured the winning point.
The following represented the H.E.C.:—
A. M. Quinn, W. Stoker (Capt.), A. R. Minu, Lau Pak, W. E. Peers, R. Ribeiro, S. Yusuf, G. A. Souza, Lo Hon-cheung, J. C. Santos and M. Sahban. Reserves:—Yuen Shul-fao, Li Yuk-wing, Yuen Yat-chee and Tang Kin-chi.

The following played for the Press:—
M. R. Abbas ("H.K. Telegraph"), G. W. Giffen ("H.K. Telegraph"), M. Omar ("S.C.M. Post"), A. O. Quark ("S.C.M. Post"), R. Goldman ("China Mail"), S. A. Ramjahn ("Hong Kong Telegraph"), N. A. E. Mackay ("China Mail"), G. C. Burnett ("China Mail"), A. T. Lee ("S.C.M. Post"), J. Prettyjohn ("Daily Press") and G. S. P. Guest ("S.C.M. Post") and S. Lee.

ESTABLISHING TRANQUILITY

In The Far East

Germany's Refusal To Attend Nine-Power Conference Explained

Berlin, Oct. 30.
"Germany's desire to see the situation in the Far East clarified in a manner as satisfactory as possible for the involved parties, and for world trade in general, is certainly no less than that of the signatories of the Nine-Power Treaty," declares the "Deutsche Diplomatische Politische Korrespondenz," in a leading article justifying Germany's rejection of the invitation to attend the Brussels conference.

After pointing out that Germany is not a signatory to the Treaty and that she has no desire to participate in this particular conference in view of the fact that it is the outgrowth of the League of Nations' resolution, the journal declares that Germany's refusal was especially motivated by the fact that Japan also declined the invitation.

"If the conference, by means of which it is intended to end the conflict through friendly measures, is so decisively rejected by one of the parties in the conflict, its possibilities of achieving success are extremely slight."

PLACE OF EQUALITY

The journal calls attention to the fact that following the Great War, Germany was deprived of her place of equality among the European Powers influential in the Far East, since the other nations evidently believed they could dispense with the solidarity which formerly prevailed.

In the face of the present difficulties, the journal surmises, such solidarity would doubtlessly be welcome.

Germany's attitude with regard to the conference does not signify that she is not conscious of her obligations to humanity in general, and as soon as she feels that the proper opportunity has arrived, she will be willing to co-operate in action which would bring about a peaceful settlement of the conflict.

"It goes without saying that the German Government is willing to lend its sympathy and support to any procedure which would contribute towards establishing tranquility in the Far East," the journal concludes.

SINKING OF JUNKS RECALLED

Japanese Fashion

Geneva, Oct. 30.
The Japanese observer at Geneva, in a statement on the sinking of junks off Cheelung Point, says that Japanese warships on patrol off the China coast frequently encounter junks armed with machine-guns and other guns of small calibre.

Incidents are inevitable, says the statement, when such junks are held up, since the Japanese sailors charged with searching them are most invariable attacked.

These junks are especially numerous near Hong Kong and have their headquarters at Bias Bay.

The statement recalls the Tokyo Foreign Office statement on October 22 referring to measures taken since 1926 to combat piracy in Bias Bay, and to the agreement reached in 1927 on this subject between the British and Japanese naval authorities.

The statement also recalls the British expedition to Bias Bay in 1928.

All these facts, alleges the statement, go to show that Japanese warships are obliged to take energetic measures against junks which resist attempts at search.

ANTI-AIR RAID PRECAUTIONS

National Competitive Re-Armament

London, Oct. 29.
A Labour amendment to the King's address was moved to-day by Mr. Herbert Morrison, who complained that the Government, even within its own policy, which he criticised as one of semi-isolation and coupled with national competitive re-armament, was failing to "make the progress it should through excessive tenderness for private interests. He complained in particular of the delay in anti-air raid precautions. He reiterated the Labour faith in the system of collective security.

The Home Secretary, Sir Samuel Hoare, repudiated Mr. Morrison's statements on the foreign policy of the Government but recalled that the Foreign Secretary would speak on Monday and passed on to domestic affairs.

Sir Samuel cited a number of statistical indices to show the great economic activity in the country, which, he claimed, fully justified the Government's economic policy. He argued that it was easy to exaggerate the part played by re-armament orders in the stimulation of trade. Regarding re-armament he thought an important stage had now been reached when they would see big production.

ALLOCATING DUTIES

Turning specifically to air raid precautions Sir Samuel said, that in the course of a week or two he would be in a position to introduce a bill allocating duties, making clear financial relations between the centre and local authorities and providing a general co-ordination of activities to be mobilised in this new field of defence. He believed they will be able to build up a system that would very materially assist the general system of defence against air attack.

Sir Samuel Hoare added that experience was tending to show that while you could not prevent a raid—a certain number of aeroplanes always getting through—you could so organise defence as to make it very dangerous to the attacking forces and with the combination of a strong air force, effective anti-aircraft guns and other anti-aircraft defences and of a well organised system of passive defence upon the ground, you could ensure two great objectives. You could prevent panic in a great centre of population and could ensure the continuation of essential services upon which highly developed civilisation depended.

BROADCASTING IN FOREIGN LANGUAGES

London, Oct. 30.
In his speech in the House of Commons yesterday, when he moved the Labour amendment to the Address, Mr. Herbert Morrison asked why was it that Britain was nearly the only country in the world not broadcasting news in foreign languages.

Refusal to do so, he considered was contrary to the interests of the British Commonwealth.

Intervening just before the House adjourned, the Postmaster-General said the Government had been considering for some time broadcasting in foreign languages, and had now decided to do so.

"I want to say that when we send out news it will be straight news, as I am sure everybody on both sides of the House would wish it to be, and not the sort of propaganda that goes out from some foreign countries—not to their credit and not for the better information of the people who listen to them."

The announcement was received with cheers.

JAPANESE PLANE

Alleged To Have been Fired At By British Outposts

Shanghai, Oct. 30.
A Japanese plane flying over the British positions near Jessfield Park is alleged to have been fired at by British outposts this afternoon following the dropping of bombs in close vicinity.

The Japanese-owned cotton mill a few hundred metres from Jessfield Park, which was evacuated by British soldiers two days ago, was set on fire by Japanese gunfire since Chinese troops had dug themselves in there.

SHEDDING THE BLOOD OF CHINA

"Peace Is Ideal, But Not At Any Price"

Paris, Oct. 29.
Dr. Wellington Koo, Chinese delegate to the League Assembly, in an interview with Reuter to-day made an uncompromising answer to the question whether conciliation with Japan is still possible. "For China, peace is the ideal, but not peace at any price," said Dr. Koo.

"To-day's news says we have had a reverse, but see how our troops, contrary to general belief, have been able to hold up the Japanese invaders. China is prepared to resist to the last ditch."

"There can be no question of special rights for Japan. Co-operation with Japan is impossible while our territory is invaded."

"How can we co-operate with a nation which is shedding the blood of China?"

Dr. Wellington Koo expressed regret that Japan was not attending the Brussels Conference. "If she has a case to present," he said, "she should come without hesitation."

Asked what China expected from the conference, whether it was political or material assistance, Dr. Koo replied: "It is not China who summoned the conference. China expects all treaty rights to be respected. Not only is the future of China involved, but the question of the very principle of respect for signed treaties."

Dr. Koo will go to Brussels on Sunday as head of the Chinese delegation to the Nine-Power Conference.

Shanghai, Oct. 30: With food and "comfort" articles smuggled in by Chinese and foreigners the
"doomed battalion" in a godown at Chapel are expected to hold on for a considerable time.
Yesterday the Japanese troops which surrounded the godown was intended for inducing the Chinese to come out from the godown was not ascertained. But the latter were determined to hold to the building.

NORTH CHINA WAR NEWS

HEAVY DAMAGES INFLICTED ON JAPANESE FLEET

Shanghai, Oct. 30: Heavy damages have been inflicted on the Japanese 3rd and 4th fleets by Chinese bombers and artillery in Shanghai and along the South China coast since the opening of hostilities on August 13, according to an investigation completed by a foreign military observer in Shanghai.

According to this report four Japanese war vessels were sunk and 10 others damaged, including the Isumo, flagship of the 3rd Fleet under the command of Admiral Hasegawa.

More than 100 officers and bluejackets were killed or injured on these vessels, it is reported.

The foreigner's investigation gives the following list: 2 torpedo boats sunk off Luho on August 28; Destroyers No. 16 and No. 28
damaged near Woosung on August 23; one cruiser damaged in the Whangpoo injuring 22 blue jackets and one officer; the aft of the flagship Isumo badly damaged; 4 senior officers killed or injured; 11 junior officers killed or injured; 22 bluejackets killed or injured; two cruisers damaged in a collision at mouth of Woosung, now returned to Nagasaki for repairs; explosion on cruiser near Amoy, reason unknown; 50 men killed; one aircraft carrier grounded since October 16 near Macao;

JAPANESE SUFFER
800 CASUALTIES
AT HSIANGANZIANG

Shanghai, Oct. 30: No less than 800 casualties were sustained yesterday by the Japanese during sanguinary hand-to-hand combats with the Chinese defenders at Hsianganziang, a strategic point on the new Chinese defence line.
The engagements took place at intermissions from early morning to midnight. Japanese reinforcements were continuously rushed to the scene of conflict but they failed to dislodge the Chinese forces which put up a stubborn resistance.

According to military observers,
the Japanese are apparently determined to drive a wedge into the Chinese new defence line at this point, but with equal determination the Chinese defenders will try to hold it.

JAPANESE PLANES DROP 40
BOMBS AT TAIYUAN

Taiyuan, Oct. 30: Scores of houses were demolished and many civilians blasted to pieces yesterday when four Japanese bombers and three pursuit planes raided Tai-yuan, dropping down more than 40 missiles.

Handbills of a preposterous nature were also distributed over the city by the raiders.
Central News.

CHANGCHOW, WUSHI BADLY
BOMBED BY JAPANESE
PLANES

Chinkiang, Oct. 30: Further details of the Japanese raids over the Nanking-Shanghai Railway on Oct. 28 reveal that more than 40 non-combatants were killed and considerable property damage was done in Changchow and Wushi,
two important cities on the line.
It is now learned that six bombers released over 30 missiles on Changchow, blowing up a number of sections of the tracks, breaking down telephone lines and completely demolished the engine room of the second mill of the Tacheng Cotton Mill. One railway guard and five civilians were killed.

A godown belonging to the Chungshing Coal Mine was set afire by incendiary bombs and over 70 dwelling houses nearby were demolished.
At Wushi 48 bombs were dropped in the vicinity of the railway station. Although the station escaped serious damage, the Bank of China godown, Chingchin Cotton Mill and over a hundred houses were blown to bits. It is estimated that over 40 persons were killed.—Central News.

NO SERIOUS FIGHTING ON PING-HAN FRONT

Hsinhsiang, Oct. 30: There has been no serious fighting on the Peiping-Hankow Railway front
during the last few days.

It is learned that the Japanese military authorities have shifted a part of their troops from the Peiping-Hankow and Tientsin-Fukow Railway fronts to the Hsien-Shansi border to assist in the offensive in east Shansi.

CHINESE PEOPLE'S REVOLUTIONARY LEAGUE
DISSOLVED

Nanking, Oct. 30: Convinced that the whole nation must be solidly united under the Central Government in the present war of resistance to Japanese aggression, Generals Li Chai-sun, Chen Ming-shu, Tsai Ting-kai, Chiang Kwang-nai, Mr. Eugene Chen and Mr. Hsu
Chien, all leaders of the Fukien
Independence Movement 1933-34,
have jointly issued a manifesto, announcing the dissolution of the Chinese People's Revolutionary League, which they formerly organized for the purpose of national salvation.

The manifesto urged that all similar organisations at home and abroad be also dissolved in order to consolidate national strength to fight against Japan.

MORE JAPANESE
REINFORCEMENTS

Shanghai, Oct. 30: One thousand Japanese soldiers, representing a part of the sixth batch of reinforcements, arrived here today aboard two transports. The of ammunition.—Central News.

MME. KUNG URGES MATERIAL
SUPPORT FROM AMERICA

Shanghai, Oct. 30: An appeal to the American public to extend material support to China in her present gallant resistance to Japanese aggression was made by Madame H.H. Kung, wife of the Minister of Finance, in a speech broadcast to the United States over the Gailing Broadcasting Station at Nanking.

In the course of her address Madame Kung also urged the signatories of the Nine-Power Treaty to adopt effective sanctions against the aggressor.—
Central News.

MENTENGTSUN TAKEN BUT IMMEDIATELY RECOVERED

Nanking, Oct. 30: Mentengtsun, a point west of Hsinking, was captured by the Japanese troops yesterday but was immediately recovered by the Chinese according to a military report received here to-day.

The Japanese launched nine offensive attacks on the place during the day. During one offensive they succeeded in dislodging the Chinese forces but later driven off by the latter with the aid of reinforcements, the report states.

Both sides suffered heavy casualties during the see-saw operations, the Japanese dead being estimated at 500.—
Central News.

JAPANESE ATTACKS ON KWANGFU VILLAGE
REPULSED

Shanghai, Oct. 30: Reports received from the front state that the Chinese forces holding Kwang-fu Village, three kilometres southwest of Lihong, repulsed two attacks from the Japanese to-day.

The Japanese, since the withdrawal of the main body of Chinese forces from Kiangwan, have been shelling Kwangfu Village at regular intervals, destroying some of the defence works. At two o'clock this morning several hundred Japanese launched an offensive on the Chinese right wing, but despite five attacks they were finally driven back.—
Central News.

NEW CHINESE LINES SOUTH OF CREIK COMPLETED

Shanghai, Oct. 30: Following their withdrawal from Chapel and Kiangwan on October 27, the Chinese forces have now completed their new line of defence
south of Goochow Creek.

They are preparing to put up a stiff resistance against the Japanese and will not withdraw further south-west without a force fight.

Japanese artillery and planes yesterday bombarded the new positions a number of times but failed to damage the defence works or to dislodge the Chinese troops.—

Local Chinese Ladies Do Their Bit

DIFFERENT GROUPS

The Association is divided for convenience and efficiency into different departments, each of which has its set duties, but the organisation and routine have been so well devised and distributed that the whole works smoothly and all the fine effort is seen in the marvellous result that has been achieved.

The founders are Mrs. M. K. Lo, Mrs. M. Wei, Mrs. Violet Chan, Mrs. Y. K. Chow, Mrs. Rose Tan, Mrs. Bang How, Mrs. Li Shu-fan, Mrs. S. H. Sung, Mrs. S. W. Tso, Mrs. A. W. Boon-haw and Mrs. C. S. Waung. An executive committee of five of these ladies has been appointed to superintend the activities.

Contributions and donations of money and materials have been most generously forthcoming, and the list of donors contains many foreign names as well as Chinese.

It is stated that over $5,000 has been received in cash, and articles sent to the Association, either finished or ready for making, include 10,000 yards of materials for coats, sheets and other things; 1,000 or more padded coats and trousers; 10,000 furs and large quantities of cotton and gauze.

JEWELS AND SHOES

In addition to these, the Association has received gifts of food-stuffs, shoes, silver ornaments and various other things which may be converted into funds, including even a couple of radio sets. Mrs. Wei Shu Pak, for instance, has handed to the Association jewels to the value of about $6,000, which are being raffled off.

The sources of donations are many and varied, but mention may be made of the fact that regular monthly contributions, in addition to the monthly subscription of $1 from members, are being made by Chinese seamen from different ships, by the taxi-drivers of the Hong Kong and Shanghai Taxicab Company, the "boys" of the Hong Kong Peninsula and Repulse Bay Hotels, and the employees of the Tabacqueria Filipina and the China Can Company.

Workers are now trying to hasten the making of 8,000 padded suits. An appeal was wired to the Association by Madame Chiang Kai-shek for 10,000, and one-fifth of that number have already been finished and sent away. The Association is about to embark on the making of ear-protectors, which will be useful to the soldiers in helping to prevent cold and deadening the noise of bombs and shell.

UNITED SERVICES SWAMPED

H.K. Club Has Things Their Own Way

The Hong Kong Football Club first fifteen overwhelmed the United Services by 8 goals and a drop goal (44 points) to a goal and a try (8 points) in a rugby game played on the Sookunpoo ground on Saturday.

The Club's halves played exceedingly well, and the passing of the backs was also a feature of the game. Bidwell made several spectacular runs, and Watson was responsible for some of the best kicking yet seen this season. He converted all the eight tries, a few of which were accomplished from difficult positions.

The Services got off to a very fine start, but failed to fulfil the early promise. Chivers, however, brought off a spectacular dash near the close of the first half.

The teams were: Club 1st XV—J. P. Whittham (Capt.), D. H. Stewart, H. D. Bidwell, W. E. Grieve, H. van Leeuwen, A. H. R. Butcher, J. L. Bonnar, K. A. Watson, K. W. Salter, R. G. Geer, C. F. Needham, W. E. Peers, J. Redman, A. J. G. Taylor and J. C. Miller.

United Services—Sub. Lt. Catlaw (Rover); 2/Lt. Chivers (Mid-diesex Regt.), Lt. Davenport (8th Heavy Bde. R.A.), Pte. Rainey (Seaforth's), Lt. Euman (Perseus); Lt. Harvey (Odn), Lt. Talbot (Odn); 1/Wtr. Thomson (Medway), Sig. Ford (Tamar), Mns. Danby (Dorsetshire), Mns. Grant (Tamar), Schoolmaster Foster (Tamar), Lt. Poulton (Dainty), Capt. Gillespie (Capt.) R. E., and Cpl. Harrison R.E.

A game was played earlier in the afternoon on the same ground between the H.M.S. Eagle and the Club "A" XV, which resulted in a victory for the former by two goals and a try (13 points) to nil.
